

The Houses

The sky is divided into twelve sectors, each one known as a house. They are not heavenly bodies or star systems but they represent every area of human development.

Below is a short explanation of the house that is ruled by each star sign and therefore the area to develop and work with in this lifetime.

First House (1 - Birth) Aries

This represents your basic personality, physical health and appearance and how you reveal yourself to others.

Second House (2 - Possessions) Taurus

This represents material possessions, wealth and personal belongings. It also represents feelings.

Third House (3 - The Mind) Gemini

This represents how you think about the world, communicate ideas and express yourself.

Fourth House (4 - The Home) Cancer

This represents where you live, your roots, ancestry, parents and family.

Fifth House (5 - Creativity) Leo

This represents pleasure, leisure activities and socialising.

Sixth House (6 - Work) Virgo

This represents employment, business, career and working relationships.

Seventh House (7 - The Heart) Libra

This represents relationship, love affairs, marriage and long-term partnerships.

Eighth House (8 - Sharing) Scorpio

This represents attitudes on sex, money or ideas and how you reveal your generosity - or lack of!

Ninth House (9 - The Intellect) Sagittarius

This represents how you learn, your education and upbringing as well as learning during adulthood.

Tenth House (10 - Personal Ambitions) Capricorn

This represents your aspirations, dreams and goals.

Eleventh House (11 - Friendship) Aquarius

This represents how you entertain your friends and socialise and indulge your personal pleasures.

Twelfth House (12 - Escapism) Pisces

This represents the things that you fear whether it is loneliness, death or worries of the mind.
